

Fish the Upper Sacramento from the privacy of an exclusive fishing camp!

Fish for three days in riverbank comfort from California Trout's private fishing camp on the Upper Sacramento River. Located on a remote section of the river, this rustic camp offers beautiful scenery and seconds-from-the-river's-best-fishing access - plus a fulltime camp host, meals, and even flies. The Upper Sacramento River Exchange is offering this special fundraising package, which includes:

Two nights accommodations at the camp (tent platforms or huts)

Fulltime camp host (limited guide service where time permits)

All meals (prepared by camp host)

A free selection of proven Upper Sac flies

A natural history presentation by the River Exchange

Price: $2,000.00 (less than $112/day per angler)

Find five buddies and call today; we only have one package, and once it's gone, it's gone... For reservations and additional information call the Upper Sacramento River Exchange at (530) 235-2012

Proceeds benefit the on-going watershed conservation and stewardship programming programs at the Upper Sacramento River Exchange. Have fun, catch fish, and make a difference for the Upper Sacramento River.
